No. C 12-5762 RS

12 v. Plaintiff,
13

ORDER RE STATUS OF CASE

14 BLANCA E. BOUTON, et al.,

15 Defendants.

16 _____ /
17
18 Plaintiff brought this action alleging that defendants showed a pay-per-view prize fight at 19 their restaurant without obtaining a license from plaintiff, the exclusive distributor. Defendants
20 failed to file timely responses to the complaint, and the clerk entered their defaults, at plaintiff's
21 request. Thereafter, having obtained advice and assistance from the Court's pro se Help Desk,
22 defendants moved to set aside the defaults. Defendants also requested appointment of pro bono
23 counsel.

24 Before that motion was heard, plaintiff gave notice that the matter had settled, and a standby
25 order of dismissal was entered. Defendants, however, then advised the court the matter had not 26 settled, and requested appointment of pro bono counsel. Plaintiff later withdrew the notice of 27 settlement. The standby order of dismissal was therefore vacated by Clerk's Notice.
28

1 Since that time, plaintiff has taken no steps to prosecute the action. While it may be that
2 plaintiff believed a further order of court was forthcoming, the lack of prosecution suggests that
3 plaintiff may have abandoned the action or that a settlement was reached after all.

4 Accordingly, within one week of the date of this order, plaintiff shall either file a dismissal
5 of the action, or a statement that it wishes to pursue the claims. In the event plaintiff does intend to 6 go forward, the Court will issue a formal order setting aside the defaults and will refer the action to 7 the pro bono project with a request that counsel be located, if possible, to represent defendants on a 8 pro bono basis.
